

By Sally J Foote DVM, CABP-IAABC
www.drssallyjfoote.com

A Storm /Sound Sangria plan to calm the worried pet

Please follow the checked items to create a calming plan.

_____ Toss food into bathroom/ covered crate with a bed on non storm days to train for storm/ noise days

_____ Dogs - Adaptil collar . Wear 24/7 – remove for baths. Wear snug like a belt – renew monthly – plug in also in safe room

_____ Cats – Feliway spray on bandana, or spray on the perches, and in the safe room on day of storms - plug in in safe room/ carrier areaq

Storm/ noise days

_____ Give _____ medication at least 1 hour before storm approaches
Ok to give if not sure if storm coming? Yes ___ No ___

_____ Create a safe area – put a bed or towel in the, bathroom, basement or closet. Toss treats and food in there to train them to go there daily.

_____ stock freezer with Kong toy stuffed with canned food- toss in safe room .

_____ Use snug fitting T-shirt or cover your dog/cat with a loose blanket.

_____ Continuously Play heavy beat rock music,– see Butterscotch’s playlist

_____ Close blinds/ curtains , cover the crate with a blanket – create a cave

_____ Humans stay calm, no excessive petting, high pitched voices or agitated action.

(Get you and family in safe area early in bad storms to avoid chaos)

Youtube videos drsallyjfoote channel – get in the basement get in the bathroom get in your carrier